Rapid talent deployment of permanent recruitment

We have earned the position of being South Africa's recruitment agency of choice by setting and consistently achieving high standards in the recruitment and placement of permanent staff for over 50 years.

For us it's personal.

At Kelly, our people are our strategic imperative. We employ only the best and put our people power to work for you. Kelly's expert consultants exhibit an in-depth knowledge pertaining to the industry sector in which they recruit and consult. This enables the building and nurturing of valuable partnerships with both Client and Candidates alike.

	Commercial recruitment A team of consultants who focus on providing high calibre candidates across all commercial and business disciplines. Our team of recruitment consultants earmarks and places top talent for all generalist positions from entry level positions to middle management.
	Financial markets recruitment Our entrenched relationships with our clients in the financial sector have enabled our understanding and expertise to identify talent nationally in a highly competitive market.
	IT & Telecoms recruitment This dynamic industry has created many opportunities to new entrants into the workplace. As talent magnets for South African youth, we are able to introduce the Best of Breed to your business, taking your business into the 5th industrial revolution.
	SALES & SERVICES The growth of any organization is dependant on the strength and professionalism of your sales and service workforce representing your business. With bespoke sourcing, selection and recruitment methodology we are able to unlock people potential to close your sales and deliver on the promise you make to your clients'.
	BPO & CONTACT CENTRES Specialist consultants ensure consistent delivery of high-quality candidates to our clients, on time and at the right time. Deep understanding of this industry, we have positioned ourselves successfully to deliver on rapid recruitment demands, with emphasis on our personalised delivery methodology
	LEARNERSHIPS, INTERNS & GRADUATE RECRUITMENT Recruitment to deliver on one of your strategic imperatives is critical. Our recruitment service offering can be crafted to meet with your deliverables with unbundled recruitment offerings to a full recruit. Our advertising and social media presence means that we will attract candidates that you might not have access to, thereby ensuring that we deliver on a bulk recruit, without mitigating quality, quantity or compliance.

Kelly is flexible and agile enough to co-create solutions and have the capability to manage high-volume people-intensive processes, scale of operations and national geographic reach across Africa.

Introducing Adcorp

As a business whose strength is its people, Kelly is part of the JSE-listed Adcorp Group of companies. Adcorp is a workforce solutions provider with a total managed workforce of more than 45 000 employees and assignees. The Group's strong leadership and global industry expertise helps clients to enhance productivity, flexibility and improve compliance. This is enhanced by the Group's ability to increase employability by connecting people with job opportunities whilst supporting the skilling and reskilling of South African workforces.

As an Adcorp Group firm, we are galvanised by our Group's Purpose to enable agile, focused and skilled workforces for the future, workforces that are inclusive of people of all abilities, genders, ages and ethnicities; workforces that make a positive contribution to society. At Kelly, we don't just fill a vacancy- for us it's personal.

With deep, trusted and long-standing relationships with our clients and a reputation for rapid, personalised placement solutions, Kelly continues to deliver the most comprehensive and innovative recruitment service to the African market in our chosen sectors.

As one of Africa's leading recruitment firms, our place in this world is to help others find theirs.

We pride ourselves in delivering a trusted, consistent and specialised niche recruitment service that is unmatched in Africa. We partner with the best in the business to deliver the best to business.

We are a talent acquisition and management company that helps progressive and growth-obsessed firms solve staffing problems of consequence, specifically through embedded Recruitment Process Outsourcing (RPO) solutions for permanent recruitment and Managed Service Provider ("MSP") solutions for external workforces.

A brand that is synonymous with the placement of quality front and back office temporary professionals across multiple industries. Sound corporate governance underpins our service delivery, as well as efficient rapid talent deployment of temporary staff.

A leading IT personnel resourcing and project management brand that sources high-end IT contractors from multiple IT disciplines and procures these for clients on temporary contracting and on a permanent placement basis. We focus on Business transformation and strategy delivery.

Primarily a niche nursing, medical staffing and sundry medical services provider to the private healthcare sector. Additional services include medical wellness screening and medical fitness assessments.
